

Dear Students and Seniors,

We would like to invite you next Saturday March 29 to visit the Wilhelma in Stuttgart, Wilhelma is not a zoo in the generally accepted sense of the word - it's the only zoological botanical garden in Europe. And with its combination of plants, animals and historic buildings unique worldwide.

<http://www.wilhelma.de/nc/en/home.html>

We organized a guided tour (in German) through the beautiful garden and see a lot of animals, historical buildings and plants. We go to the new ape house described in the link.

After visiting the Wilhelma we will have a walk to Stuttgart city where you can see the old and the new castle, the 100 years old Market hall (art nouveau – Jugendstil) or just go shopping.

Organizational details:

We meet at 8:35 a.m. latest in front of the Main Station Ulm- outside at the steps.

Because of buying group tickets, who is not in time, have to by the ticket by himself/herself.

08:45 a.m. departure Ulm Main Station, lane 3 (train)

09:56 a.m. arrival Stuttgart

and drive with the Underground U14 directly to the zoo.
