

Invitation to ASSIST Students and Senior Consultants
City of Laichingen with Museum of local history and Cave “Tiefenhöhle”
Saturday, May 21st, 2016 (12.00 – 20.00 h)

Dear Students and Senior Consultants, the voluntary ASSIST team will perform an excursion to Laichingen, an old city of weavers, northwest of Ulm. We start with a guided tour in the museum of local history where you will get some impressions of the former weaver handicraft in our region. Then we will have an approximate 30 minutes walk to a unique cave. The “Tiefenhöhle” (Laichingen pothole) is the deepest show cave in Germany. We will descend down to a depth of 55 m. (temperature inside is only 9 C°, please dress warm enough). After a picnic we walk back to the bus station.
