

Excursion to Bad Urach with walking tour from Bad Urach to the waterfall and to the ruins of Hohenurach (former castle)

on Saturday, April 27, 2019

Dear Students,

we are pleased to invite you to the picturesque town of Bad Urach west of Ulm. We'll go there by private cars and have a walk to the famous waterfall of Bad Urach. Sturdy shoes are recommended! We have a picnic on top of the hill. Here you will find a kiosk with refreshments, but provide your own food and drinks if you want to do so. We continue our walk to the ruins of the former Hohenurach castle. This is a nice place to have another picnic (no kiosk) with a beautiful view over the Swabian Alb Mountains, the town and the river Erms valley. At least we walk down to the city of Bad Urach for a short sightseeing-tour, if we have time we will also visit the Residenzschloß (<https://www.schloss-urach.de/start/>), and for a final break in one of the nice cafés before going back to Ulm.
